Riding down this west Texas highway
With the rain and you on my mind
Even though it's raining it's pouring
My heart is filled with pure sunshine

You and I were meant to be forever
I know that more and more every day
I want to reach out to you so tightly
I want to reach out to you and say

You're my Santa Fe Rosie
Everyone in the world oughta know
You're my Santa Fe Rosie
I can't believe you are mine
Our love will stand the test of time

(Inst. Break)

You and I were meant to be forever
I know that more and more every day
I want to reach out to you so tightly
I want to reach out to you and say

You're my Santa Fe Rosie
Everyone in the world oughta know
You're my Santa Fe Rosie
I can't believe you are mine
Our love will stand the test of time
