

EVERY DAY I CALL YOUR NAME

Ron Martin (BMI)

'Written around 1989 when I was with the 'Shiloh Band'. Just a 'good ole' country song!' (Ron)
'The idea was to make it sound like the early Eagles and 'Bernie' Comolli did a pretty good job with the B-Bender Telecaster. A little tribute to Clarence White and Gene Parsons'. (Marco)

Marco Zanzi: Audio/MIDI Programming (Drums and Bass), 12-String Electric Guitars, Acoustic Guitars, 5-String Banjos, Piano, Harmony Vocals

All those years I waited for you
All those tears I cried alone
Seems you never missed me darlin'
Did you ever call my name

I wonder where you are tonight love
I wonder if you still live alone
But can it matter to you darlin'
Every day I call your name

Well, I thought that we always be happy
We had a good thing goin' I thought strong
But can it matter to you darlin'
Every day I call your name

INSTR. BREAK

Well, I thought that we always be happy
We had a good thing goin' I thought strong
But can it matter to you darlin'
Every day I call your name
Every day I call your name
