

ONE MORNING IN MONTE GOLICO (While Cutting The Grass)

Ron Martin and Marco Zanzi

'Written in July-August 2008. During his Italy's trip, Ron lived in my home on 'Monte Golico' road. One morning Ron picked up the guitar and began to play a nice chords sequence in G while the gardener was cutting the grass and I was looking for a new instrumental to put on the CD. Respectfully dedicated to Mr. Bill B. Keith'. (Marco)
